

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MANOJA SAVARAM,

Defendant.

8:24CR96

ORDER

This matter is before the Court on Defendant's Motion for Extension of Time to File Pretrial Motions. (Filing No. 47). The motion is unopposed by the government. For good cause shown, the Court finds the motion should be granted.¹ Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) Defendant's Motion for Extension of Time to File Pretrial Motions, (Filing No. 47), is granted.
- 2) Pretrial motions shall be filed by March 21, 2025.
- 3) In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the Court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and March 21, 2025, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant this motion would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence, and the novelty and complexity of the case. The failure to grant this motion might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B). Failing to timely object to this order as provided under this court's local rules will be deemed a waiver of any right to later claim the time should not have been excluded under the Speedy Trial Act.

Dated this 20th day of February, 2025.

BY THE COURT:

s/Michael D. Nelson
United States Magistrate Judge

¹ The Court notes that the pretrial motion deadline has been extended numerous times for review of discovery. Discovery review should be concluded without further delay. It is unlikely that further extensions will be granted.
